A Note From Pastor Andrew

In talking with many people, I have found there is some dread in their voice about where we're at in the year. "It's August already, that means fall and winter are just around the corner." I wish we didn't look at it this way. I say let's worry about the colder temperatures when they get here, let's focus on the now. The joys of summer coming to close, yes, but still so much still to happen. I love the summer because I get the chance to bond more with my kids as they spend time with me at church or in other activities. For us we're "forced," in a good way, to build upon what it is to be a family. I know not all of us are in this place yet, or still, but I wonder is there not this opportunity to find respite in each other during these summer months. I truly hope so.

On a different note, make sure you leave time for your church family and all the activities we have going on that you can be a part of no matter what. Things such as; Lapeer days and the parade this year, friendship Sunday, our monthly church breakfast, simple fellowship every Sunday, ethnic dinners, golf outings, River of Hope, and the list goes on. Join us, join your church to celebrate the gift of God with the people of God, and perhaps you could be so bold as to invite the world.

God loves you and so do I,

Pastor Andrew
